

PSIA/AASI - Eastern Division Children's Specialist 1 Assessment

All Ages & Stages through the Intermediate Zone

Candidate Name _____ Location _____ Date _____

Course Conductor _____ Workbook Complete: Y / N Quiz Score: _____

Attain CS1: Y / N

ALL AREAS MUST MEET THE STANDARD TO ATTAIN CS1

The participant is able to:			Does Not Meet Standard	Meets Standard
CAP Model		Describe the elements of the CAP model, develop a teaching plan based on a student's age and stage, and apply the plan based on student behavior
The Learning Partnership	Teaching Cycle	Describe and apply the PDAS teaching cycle to a student's age and stage
	Class Handling	Utilize two different teaching styles for a safe group learning experience
	Teaching with Creativity	Engage other participants in age appropriate activities that result in skill enhancement
Movement Analysis	Biomechanics	Understand stance, alignment and basic body movements, and apply these principles to the ages and stages of development
	Real and Ideal Movement Spectrum	Identify, describe and demonstrate basic movements as they relate to a student's age & stage
	Cause and Effect	Identify and explain cause and effect relationships as they relate to a student's age & stage
Opportunities and Challenges	Behavior Management	Recognize behavioral challenges and be aware of the steps available for successful behavior management
	The Parent Partnership	Understand the importance of parental involvement and employ communication tactics for a successful student experience
	Equipment & Clothing	Explain how and why equipment positively or negatively affects a student's experience
Participation		Be actively involved throughout the learning process as demonstrated through actions and words representing an appropriate level of preparation

Comments:
